Cause No. 1:24-cv-00614-DAE

The Honorable David A. Ezra

[proposed] ORDER GRANTING CFTC’S MOTION FOR A PROTECTIVE ORDER

On November 29, 2024, Defendant, United States Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC”), filed a Motion for a Protective Order requesting that the Court stay or limit discovery pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c). The Court, having reviewed the motion, finds that the CFTC has shown good cause for the entry of a protective order, and the motion is GRANTED. The CFTC’s obligation to produce documents is limited to the documents in the Administrative Record previously produced by the CFTC. Plaintiffs are forbidden from issuing further discovery requests to the CFTC.

SIGNED this the _____ day of _____ 2024.

David A. Ezra
United States District Judge
